DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10/5/06 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claims 1-9, 11-14, 16-18 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. There is no original disclosure to "each portion" of the tearable film having the ability to remain sticking to an object.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-9, 11-14, 16-18 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Shiota et al 2004/0175527. The reference discloses an easily tearable adhesive film comprising a unidirectionally tearable film with a plurality of cut lines thereon to allow for tearing in a direction traverse to the machine direction; see [0005]-[0008], [0022]-[0025] and [0089].

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1-6, 8, 11-14, 17 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Levin 5,948,494 in view of Cuffey et al 2,967,010. The primary reference discloses the invention substantially as claimed, a tearable adhesive film with a plurality of cutting lines thereon partitioning the film into portions; see Figure 8. The secondary reference discloses positioning the perforations of a tear line in such a way as to allow tearing in a non-machine direction of a paper film; see column 1, lines 24-27. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use the perforation line structure set forth in the secondary reference in the article of the primary reference in order to provide a tear line in a non-machine direction of the film.
